

Medical Education Building - Move Process

- The process is condensed to show key milestones. Additional coordination occurs within each step, with ongoing communication throughout. The moves website is continually updated with resources and key dates.

- Not shown is the coordination required to finalize move vendors for equipment relocation, make modifications to furniture plan for stakeholders' research-specific items, and ensure the building infrastructure can support stakeholders' equipment